

North Tyneside Council

Violence and Abuse Against Staff

Staff working at these premises have a right to work in a safe and supportive working environment.

Any incident of violence or abuse will be reported and Council procedures instigated. This will result in action taken against anyone who behaves in a violent or abusive manner.

The Council takes such incidents very seriously.