

Spellings for Autumn 1

A spelling test will take place at the end of the half term. A variety of these words will be chosen.

Children will be learning about the use of these words and playing spelling games in school.

We ask that you practice these words with your child at home.

Spelling pattern adding the suffix ly (adverbs) glumly loudly eerily quietly happily angrily gently madly proudly spookily	Spelling pattern adding the suffix ly costly certainly usually probably hourly daily monthly yearly completely unfortunately	Spelling pattern adding the suffix ing. forgetting upsetting regretting letting gardening swimming running jumping climbing reading
Spelling pattern adding the suffix ed. preferred limited enjoyed concerned gathered collected regretted wandered followed pondered	Spelling pattern sure. treasure measure assure unsure reassure enclosure ensure closure pleasure leisure	Spelling pattern ure. capture culture fixture future mixture gesture sculpture moisture literature temperature